Notes for Contributors

1. Manuscripts should be clearly typed on 8.5" x 11" paper, with the author's name, title, affiliation and address on a separate cover page. All copies will not be returned to authors. Authors should keep a copy of their manuscript to guard against loss.
2. Manuscripts in both Chinese and English are welcomed. The length of submitted manuscripts should be not more than 6000 words. Manuscripts beyond this limit will be returned to the author for resubmission.
3. An English title should accompany an article written in Chinese and vice versa. An abstract of not more than 200 characters in Chinese and 150 words in English should precede each article. In the case of articles in Chinese, the abstract should be in both languages.
4. All submissions will go through the editorial review that usually takes one or two months. Accepted manuscripts are normally published in the following one or two issues. The Editor reserves the right to make any necessary changes in the articles, or requests the contributor to do so, or reject the article submitted. Once the final version of an article has been accepted, contributors are requested not to make further changes during the proof-reading stage.
5. The views expressed are those of the authors and do not necessarily reflect the position of the Hong Kong Teachers' Centre.
6. Manuscripts submitted should conform to the style laid down in Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th ed., 2001). For articles in Chinese, please refer to the format used in this current issue.
7. Deadlines for submission of articles is November 30 of each year. Manuscripts and correspondence should be sent to the Editorial Committee of the HKTC Journal at the Hong Kong Teachers' Centre, 4 Pak Fuk Road, North Point, Hong Kong. (E-mail address: info@hktc.emb.gov.hk).
